

CONTINUING EDUCATION NIGHT CLASSES

All classes are held at the South Bend Training Center, start at 5:00 pm & last 3 hours.
Classes are limited in size. The following classes will be offered:

___ FIRST AID/CPR	3 weeks Mondays starting March 16 th
___ PLANS AND SPECS	5 weeks Tuesdays starting March 17 th
___ BEGINNER GMAW	5 weeks Wednesdays starting March 18 th
___ FIRST TIME FOREPERSON	5 weeks Wednesdays starting March 18 th

Please make your selections and return this form to tking@smw20training.com by February 20th, 2026. If you make multiple selections, please rank them in order of preference. If you want more than one class, please let us know about this also.

If you have any questions, call the Apprenticeship Office @ 317-541-0050.

NAME: _____ PHONE: _____

ADDRESS: _____

CITY/ STATE/ ZIP: _____

EMAIL: _____ SS# _____

JOURNEYMAN: ___ APPRENTICE: ___ PRE: ___ CLASSIFIED: ___ INDUSTRIAL: ___ J.U.M.P: ___

FIRST AID/CPR – Utilizing the Coyne Program as presented in Apprenticeship training. Practical's in Basic Lifesaving Measures.

PLANS AND SPECS – Class will revolve around getting comfortable with the navigation of prints, specs, and submittals along with gaining information needed within our trade in each area of these documents.

FIRST TIME FOREPERSON – This class is designed to help Apprentices and young journeypersons that are taking on leadership roles. It will help sharpen their take off, listing, and organizational skills. It will also give basic skills in communication, leadership, and conflict resolution in the managing of crews on a job site.

BEGINNER GMAW – Class will include GMAW fundamental information along with practical hands-on application in the weld shop. A certification is not included in this class.